JSP Chief Announces Rs. 1 Lakh To Victims Of House Demolition

Pawan To Support Victims Financially

Ippatam, Andhra Pradesh, India, 08.11.2022, 18:39 Time

USPA NEWS - Social media statistics show that this incident of house demolition in Ippatam village has become a topic of discussion not only in Andhra Pradesh state but also across the country.

Pawan Kalyan, President of the Janasena Party, has decided to financially support those whose houses were damaged and lost their homes in Ippatam village of Mangalagiri constituency.

Social media statistics show that this incident of house demolitions has become a topic of discussion not only in Andhra Pradesh state but also across the country. The day after the incident, Pawan Kalyan visited the victims and consoled them. He assured that Janasena will support the victims in all respects.

An assurance of one lakh rupees has now been announced to stand by victims financially as well as morally. This amount will soon be distributed by Pawan Kalyan, said Nadendla Manohar, Political Affairs Committee Chairman of the Janasena Party, said in a statement on Tuesday.

It is known that on Friday, JCBs were deployed and policemen were deployed and houses were demolished because the residents of Ippatam village had cooperated with the Jana Sena Avirbhava Sabha held in the lands of Ippatam on March 14.
