

Beat: News

Need to strictly enforce fire safety regulations

Kiren Rijju

New Delhi, India, 16.04.2016, 15:56 Time

USPA NEWS - The Minister of State for Home Affairs, Mr. Kiren Rijju addressing at the National Workshop on “An Integrated Approach to Fire Safety”, on the occasion of the Fire Services Day, in New Delhi on April 14, 2016.

National Workshop On Integrated Approach To Fire Safety Inaugurated

Minister of State for Home Affairs, Mr. Kiren Rijju inaugurated a national workshop on “An Integrated Approach to Fire Safety” on April 14, on the occasion of the “Fire Service Day”. Mr. Kiren Rijju said that the efforts put in by the firemen invariably do not get reflected. The job of firemen is so difficult that it cannot be performed effectively, if proper equipment is not provided to them, he added.

The Minister said that allocation of more resources and modernization of fire services is needed, so that the entire system can be more robust. The Minister said that the state Governments need to strictly enforce the fire safety regulations. He said that the Ministry of Home Affairs is persuading the states to incorporate the provisions to the Building Code to ensure proper safety of life and property. He also said that the MHA provides technical support, guidance and assistance in this field to the states.

Mr. Kiren Rijju said that the Fire Services, Civil Defence and Home Guards are working together as first responders to the disasters and form an integral part of the disaster management system. He said that they play a vital role in preparing community for disaster management by imparting appropriate training to them. A trained community responds well in cases of disasters and also helps in effective relief and rescue work, he added.

Mr. Kiren Rijju said that the National Workshop on “An Integrated Approach to Fire Safety” is a positive step towards sharing of knowledge and technology among the various stakeholders in the country. During the event, a commemorative Postage Stamp was released on “Fire Services of India” to mark the importance of the Fire Services Day.

Mrs. Archana Ramasundaram, DG, Fire Services, Civil Defence & Home Guards and SSB, Mr. Braj Kishore Prasad, Additional Secretary, Ministry of Home Affairs, Mr. T. Murthy, Member (Operations), Postal Service Board, Mr. D. K. Shami, Fire Advisor and other senior officers from Ministry of Home Affairs and Ministry of Communications and Information Technology were also present.

The event started with lighting of lamp, followed by a documentary on the devastating fire on SS Fort Strikine ship in the year 1944. Two minutes silence was observed in the memory of sacrifices made by the firemen during that incident.

---

Article online:

<https://www.uspa24.com/bericht-7697/need-to-strictly-enforce-fire-safety-regulations.html>

Editorial office and responsibility:

V.i.S.d.P. & Sect. 6 MDStV (German Interstate Media Services Agreement): Doruvu Paul Jagan Babu

Exemption from liability:

The publisher shall assume no liability for the accuracy or completeness of the published report and is merely providing space for the submission of and access to third-party content. Liability for the content of a report lies solely with the author of such report. Doruvu Paul Jagan Babu

Editorial program service of General News Agency:

UPA United Press Agency LTD

483 Green Lanes

UK, London N13NV 4BS

contact (at) unitedpressagency.com

Official Federal Reg. No. 7442619